

South East Arts Media Release

DRAFT release

17 March 2015

Regional Sculptures

Artist Margaret Brown, winner of the 2014 South East Arts, Peoples' Choice Award as part of the Bega Art Prize, is one of an expanding group of regional artists within the Visual Arts South East (VASE) network. Margaret's beautiful work, entitled 'Bream in the Shadow' was chosen by the public from amongst the works on exhibition as the Peoples' Choice. Voting took place online and at the exhibition itself.

South East Arts supports regional artists through VASE - a creative industries project designed to support visual artists in the South East region. Any visual artist living in the region can become a member of VASE.

Fellow VASE artist, Susan Chancellor took home the Bega Art Prize and the Basil Sellers art Prize.

In previous years, VASE artist, Kim Falkenmire won the Peoples' Choice Award
